OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

25X1

Thursday - 16 February 1967

25X1 [redacted] Frank McNamara, Staff Director, House Committee on Un-American Activities, called to inform me that an old friend of his, Ed O'Brien, of the St. Louis Globe Dispatch wishes to write a story on Soviet financing of youth activities with special emphasis on the World Youth Festival. McNamara is assisting to the extent that he can as will USIA. McNamara asked if it would be possible for us to provide any additional information. I gave McNamara Mr. Goodwin's telephone number and suggested that he have O'Brien call Goodwin. I later alerted Mr. Goodwin to expect this call tomorrow morning. McNamara confirmed that Scherle's office had called concerning Philbrick.

[redacted] Stan Kimmit, in the office of Senator Mike Mansfield (D., Mont.) called with regard to our offer to brief the Senator on the NSA connection. He said Senator Mansfield does not desire a briefing now but may want one later.

7. [redacted] Congressman Samuel S. Stratton (D., N.Y.) called to advise me of a news release he had just issued which was highly critical of those demanding a public investigation of the operations of CIA because of the NSA issue. Mr. Stratton explained that he felt obliged to make this unsolicited statement in the face of a mounting attack against the Agency. I thanked the Congressman for his interest. (See Memorandum for the Record, 16 February 1967.)
